

ControlScan Certifies AlphaTickets.com As Safe Shopping Site

In an effort to increase its Internet security, AlphaTickets.com, a leading online ticket broker, today announced that it has become certified by ControlScan, the Internet's first and only B2B third-party identity theft certification service.

For Immediate Release

ATLANTA, Ga./EWORLDWIRE/Nov. 3, 2006 --- As a measure to increase privacy and security and to prevent hackers and thieves from accessing sensitive information from its customers, AlphaTickets.com hired ControlScan and subscribed to the Corporate Plan. Through its unique process, ControlScan will conduct security tests and audits of AlphaTickets.com and certify the site's security.

Once a company passes the security process associated with the Corporate Secure Plan, they receive the Verified Secure, ID Theft Protected and Business Background Reviewed certificates. These certificates are renewed daily, allowing AlphaTickets.com's customers to receive independent third-party verification of the site's actual security before they decide to give out sensitive personal data.

About AlphaTickets.com

AlphaTickets.com is one of the nation's premiere online event ticket brokers. AlphaTickets.com is a licensed ticket broker in the state of Georgia, and the company has been brokering hard-to-find tickets for popular sports, concert and theatre events, working with individuals and corporations worldwide. AlphaTickets.com is a privately owned agency that resells tickets on the secondary market. Every ticket is guaranteed.
