

Adrian Dvir Shares First-Hand Experiences In His Book X3: Healing Entities And Aliens

Alternative medicine gets help from Extradimensional benevolent Beings.

For Immediate Release

RISHON-LE-ZION/EWORLDWIRE/Nov. 10, 2003 --- People react instantly when asked about their impressions about and beliefs related to paranormal experiences.

"My formal scientific education as a computer engineer did not prepare me for communications with other-worldly beings or aliens, but that is exactly what has transpired," stated Dvir, author. "Over time I have learned to accept that communication and to ask questions to further my understanding."

Adrian Dvir may not have any physical proof of his interaction with beings from other dimensions, but countless patients and colleagues claim to have experienced a lessening or cure of physical and emotional ills.

In his nearly 500-page book, Dvir describes in vivid detail his daily conversations with aliens, their instruction and guidance in healing the ills of patients of all ages, and the Beings' explanations of how and why they came to Earth. Informatively written, the book is an attention riveting metaphysical journey into mind-expanding experiences and the positive intentions of entities from beyond this world.

The grand, detailed, investigative account provided by Dvir fleshes out seemingly supernatural occurrences and is enhanced by an accompanying CD that includes testimonials and video clips. The set is a unique contribution to Metaphysical Studies reference collections and UFO Studies reading lists.

"The extradimensional beings I and others have encountered cannot be seen or touched but most patients receiving treatment experience strange sensations," said Dvir. "People with psychic ability claim they can see actual figures of humanoids in diverse shapes and sizes using very advanced medical equipment to treat illness."

While no scientific evidence of the Beings' existence is available, hard medical evidence of the healing is reported in cases of cardiovascular, immune system, liver, orthopedic and malignant disease. The medical collaboration between humans and extradimensional beings requires the human healer to be also a medium capable of communicating with these invisible Beings, to act as a translator and middleman.

Collaboration for healing began in 1994. At present, there are more than 50 independent alternative clinics in Israel that get help from the same Beings, with more than 50 Psychics acting as middlemen and translators between humans and invisible beings. An increasing number of healers in Israel claim they cure diseases as a result of help from invisible extradimensional Beings.

"My life was saved in an alternative medicine clinic," claims Eithan Dover, an engineer in his fifties living in Jerusalem. "A fat tumor disease spread throughout my body and threatened my life. Conventional medicine gave up. I was treated by invisible Beings and my tumors started to melt away. Two years have passed and my medical condition has steadily improved. I and my friends are now deeply involved in the study of this phenomena."

Eithan Dover can be reached at (972-55) 900416.

Adrian Dvir has acted as the middlemen between Eithan Dover and the Aliens. He is an Engineer that discovered his ability to function as a medium and started to collaborate with the Beings in 1995. Dvir's research into this phenomena and his findings are published on his web site at etmedical.com and in his book X3, Healing Entities and Aliens (ISBN: 9657269008).

Dvir has been featured throughout mainstream Israeli media, including major newspapers and appearances on numerous TV and radio talk shows. His formal educational background includes a B.Sc. in Engineering and a M.Sc. in Computer Engineering, specializing in computer architecture. Married with children, he is employed by a company developing computer systems for the Israeli military. Adrian can be contacted at (972-52) 654138 or (972-3) 9649440.
