Six-year-old Anastasia Richardson thought military personnel serving overseas and stateside missed the opportunity to celebrate their birthdays, so she, along with her mother and grandmother, are hosting a "Birthday Bash" unlike any other - for over 1500+ military men and women and their families from Tinker Air Force Base.

Representatives from the Pentagon, the Marines, the Air Force and the Army will be speaking.

"We're thrilled about the reception our idea has received, and by the number of generous donations made," stated Susan Dale, mother of Anastasia. "From St. Luke's Methodist Church donating the facilities, to Krispy Kreme Donuts donating over 50 dozen donuts and a 4' cake made of donuts, to the over 10 clowns from Tulsa, Oklahoma City and Missouri that are donating their services - people and businesses everywhere are helping us make sure this event will be a truly memorable occasion."
